WW1 Exhibition

The display to mark the centenary of WW1 is now open in the foyer of the Old School Hall from 10am to 3pm week days. There will be a special Saturday opening on 30 August from 10am-1pm. Thanks to Roger Stanley for his hard work in putting this exhibition together. It includes information on Hadlow WW1 casualties.

Bell Ringing at Hadlow

Six of the eight bells at St Mary's, Hadlow were cast and hung before 1700. The way that they are rung today is not very different to how they were rung then. Bell ringing will be demonstrated between 2-4pm on Sunday 14 September as part of Heritage Open Days. Come and find out more and have a go if you are over 11 years old! Under 18's must be accompanied by an adult.

Message from Save Our Tree Action Group

Kent County Council are considering removing the wonderful White Poplar at the junction of Carpenters Lane with the High Street, as they have decided (after 28 years) that it could cause accidents at the junction. Please sign the petition to save the tree – forms in convenience store, Two Brewers PH, Doctors' surgery, Old School Hall; and come to the Parish Council meeting 8 September at 7.30pm in the Old School Hall.
